1:10.000, contour interval 3-5 meters. Digital printed map in class H180 and on course 2 in H150 and D150. In open recreational courses class 5 and 7 you can choose to get a digital printed map in scale 1:7 500.

Terrain description Wilderness that is crossed by a number of smaller paths and gravel tracks. Mostly small hilly terrain. Coniferous forest of variated age with good accessibility, some areas with lower accessibility due to vegetated marshes and areas with thicker vegetation. In some areas there have been forrest thinning that do not decrease the runability so much.

Map updates In the competition area there are some hunting towers, both new and old which are not all reported on the map.

There have been some forrest thinning in the area during the winter that are marked on the map. But the paths after the forrest machines are not marked on the map. There are some smaller areas with forrest thinning that is not marked on the map.

In the edges of cutting areas there can be some trees fallen by the wind.

Unclear paths Unclear paths in the area are marked in the terrain with white stripes.

Striped section The beginners course "Inskolning" have a striped section between two controls. The section in marked on the map and in the terrain with red/white stripes. The striped section is only marked on the Inskolning maps.
