Terrain	Forest terrain with some fields and farms. Except one hill in the beginning of the courses, there are mostly flat, sandy and open pine forest. A large number of foot paths crossing the area. There are many controls in some areas. Be aware and check the control numbers carefully!	Forest terrain with some large marches and some farms. Part of the terrain is similar to the first day. Middle and long courses also get a more steep part with a lot of details and some dense areas. Most of the courses will cross a larger stream on road, small bridge or a marked route. There is little water flow, so it is OK to pass on the marked spot.

		There are many controls in some areas. Be aware and check the control numbers carefully!
