

Memo Chase start

Sunday 16 July 2023

- Classes Chase start is valid in all competition classes except D10, H10, D12 and H12. Chase start will not be used in Inskolning, Recreational classes and Open classes
- Starting Lists Starting lists will be published on the Arena and on Eventor as soon as possible after the race on Saturday is finalized.
- Starting Order The competitor with the best accumulated time, the current leader, after the 2 first stages (S1+S2) will be the first starting person. The remaining persons will start according to the time difference to the current leader.
Competitors that have a total time exceeding the current leaders time by more than 45 minutes, or don't have a total result, will start thereafter with 1 minute time difference.
- Number bibs Number bibs are to be used by the nine first starting in each class with chasing start.
Self Service at the starting place. Please bring your own safety pins.
Nummerlappar för de nio främsta i samtliga klasser med jaktstart.
Ladies will use white bibs with red numbers
Men will use white bibs with blue numbers
- Calling of starting persons 3-5 minutes before your starting time you will be called by the starting personnel to check your SportIdent-chip and to be placed in the line of start.
Then you will continue forward in the que.
Everybody need to Check the SportIdent-chip to be allowed to start.
- Start When your starting time (hour, minute and second) is shown on the Start Display you will be sent off from the start, then you should pick up your map and set off towards the starting point.
- Finish and punching at the Finish line In Chasing start the rank when passing finishing line will apply. Punching will be done a small distance after the finish line.
Finish Line Referees decide in which order the Finish line have been passed. Finish Line Referees will then decide in which order the final punch should be done.
